

Auric Boosts Investor Capability With Investor Hub

The Announcement

Auric Mining Limited (ASX: AWJ) (Auric or the Company) advises it has entered into a contract with Investor Hub, a specialised software company that provides public companies with the software capability to build direct and interactive relationships with investors.

In line with the Company's commitment to provide and deliver better communications with investors, all ASX Announcements will now be distributed via Investor Hub.

The Company will also be regularly uploading new content via the hub, including videos accompanying select announcements, education material, interviews and corporate research.

Managing Director, Mark English, said: "At a time of rapid growth of Auric, we are delighted to form a collaboration with the Investor Hub team. We believe it has never been more important to boost ways of communicating and interacting with our shareholders."

"Having a new platform to drive our communications is crucial as Auric increases its gold mining activities in the Goldfields of Western Australia. Investor Hub allows us to improve interactions with those interested in the Company," said Mr English.

This announcement has been approved for release by the Managing Director of Auric Mining Ltd.
