Supreme Court Judicial Review Hearing Adjourned to 17 October 2025

Equinox Resources Limited (ASX: EQN) ("Equinox Resources" or the "Company") provides an update on the judicial review proceedings relating to the Committee decision for the Hamersley Iron Ore Project.

Key points

- The judicial review application was heard on Friday, 26 September 2025.
- After submissions from all parties, the Court adjourned the matter to 17 October 2025.
- The adjournment allows the parties to file affidavit evidence on what mapping information and boundary data were before the Committee.

During the hearing, the Court focused on whether the Committee's decision identified two sites with sufficient boundary certainty. The Court requested evidence clarifying what information the Committee received from the Department, including whether the maps were tied to a unique identifier and capable of providing clear boundaries. The parties will now seek that information from the Department, by consent or subpoena, and file affidavit material. The matter is listed to return on 17 October 2025.

Forward-looking Statements

Certain statements included in this release constitute forward-looking information. Statements regarding EQN's plans with respect to its mineral properties and programs are forward-looking statements. There can be no assurance that EQN's plans for development of its mineral properties will proceed as currently expected. There can also be no assurance that EQN will be able to confirm the presence of additional mineral resources, that any mineralisation will prove to be economic or that a mine will successfully be developed on any of EQN's mineral properties. The performance of EQN may be influenced by a number of factors which are outside the control of the Company and its Directors, staff, and contractors. These statements include, but are not limited to statements regarding future production, resources or reserves and exploration results. All such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond the control of the Company, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied or projected by, the forward-looking information and statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: (i) those relating to the interpretation of exploration sample, mapping and drill results, the geology, grade and continuity of mineral deposits and conclusions of economic evaluations, (ii) risks relating to possible variations in reserves and resources, grade, planned mining dilution and ore loss, or recovery rates and changes in project parameters as plans continue to be refined, (iii) the potential for delays in exploration or development activities or the completion of feasibility studies, (iv) risks related to commodity price and foreign exchange rate fluctuations, (v) risks related to failure to obtain adequate financing on a timely basis and on acceptable terms or delays in obtaining governmental approvals or in the completion of development or construction activities, and (vi) other risks and uncertainties related to the company's prospects, properties and business strategy. Except for statutory liability which cannot be excluded, each of EQN, its officers, employees and advisors expressly disclaim any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of the material contained in these forward-looking statements and excludes all liability whatsoever (including in negligence) for any loss or damage which may be suffered by any person as a consequence of any information in forward-looking statements or any error or omission. EQN undertakes no obligation to update publicly or release any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after today's date or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events other than required by the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement.
