Livium Receives A$0.7m in R&D Tax Incentive Rebates

Livium Ltd (ASX: LIT) ("Livium" or the "Company") advises that it has received A$653,000 in R&D tax incentive rebates from the Australian Tax Office for the 2025 financial year (FY25), relating to its wholly owned subsidiary Envirostream Australia Pty Ltd ("Envirostream"). The rebate was received on 28 October 2025.

Further FY25 rebates are expected in relation to wholly owned subsidiary VSPC Pty Limited ("VSPC"), and LieNA Pty Limited ("LieNA®"), Livium's 50:50 Joint Venture with Mineral Resources Limited (ASX: MIN).

Livium CEO and Managing Director, Simon Linge commented:

"Our innovative recycling technologies continue to advance, and we are pleased to finalise the R&D rebate for Envirostream, which reflects ongoing development of our core battery recycling vertical. We expect the remaining FY25 rebates to be received during this quarter.

These R&D rebates complement the recent A$4.5 million placement from institutional and sophisticated investors, which will accelerate battery recycling, and support Livium's expansion into REE, PV and black mass recycling."

About Livium

Livium Ltd (previously Lithium Australia) is Australia's market leading battery recycler, Envirostream, a revenue and profit generating business with a focus on the recycling of clean energy waste. Livium is also dedicated to leading the clean energy transition by extracting critical materials from sustainable material recovery.

Livium's growth strategy is to expand its services into recycling rare earth elements and solar panels, and processing black mass to meet its customers' needs.

Beyond recycling, Livium has developed other innovative technologies. Lithium extraction technology, LieNA®, has progressed to a 50:50 joint venture with Mineral Resources Ltd (ASX: MIN). Livium's subsidiary, VSPC, has developed next generation lithium ferro phosphate (LFP) process, the fastest growing battery material.
