Talga receives A$13.3m Industriklivet grant funds

Battery materials and technology company Talga Group Ltd ("Talga" or "the Company") is pleased to announce that it has received the funds granted under the Swedish Energy Agency's Industrial Leap ("Industriklivet") program. (ASX:TLG 17/10/2025)

A total of SEK 82.6m or A$13.35m has been received by Talga's Swedish subsidiary.

It follows the successful application by the Company to fund a project called "Sustainable, low emission active anode material made from natural graphite and recycled graphite" which has a total value of SEK 190 million (A$30.8m).

The project, to be completed by 30 June 2026, will validate a near-industrial scale anode manufacturing process and inform engineering design for the commercial plan.

Authorised for release by the Board of Directors of Talga Group Ltd.

Forward-Looking Statements & Disclaimer

Statements in this document regarding the Company's business or proposed business, which are not historical facts, are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, such as estimates and statements that describe the Company's future plans, objectives or goals, including words to the effect that the Company or management expects a stated condition or result to occur. Those risks and uncertainties include factors and risks specific to the industries in which the Company operates and proposes to operate as well as general economic conditions, prevailing exchange rates and interest rates and conditions in the financial markets, among other things. Since forward-looking statements address future events and conditions, by their very nature, they involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Actual results in each case could differ materially from those currently anticipated in such statements. Investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

No forward-looking statement is a guarantee or representation as to future performance or any other future matters, which will be influenced by a number of factors and subject to various uncertainties and contingencies, many of which will be outside the Company's control. There can be no assurance that the plans of the directors and management of Talga will proceed as currently expected or will ultimately be successful.

The Company does not undertake any obligation to update publicly or release any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after today's date or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. No representation or warranty, express or implied, is made as to the fairness, accuracy, completeness or correctness of the information, opinions or conclusions contained in this announcement. To the maximum extent permitted by law, none of the Company's directors, employees, advisors, or agents, nor any other person, accepts any liability for any loss arising from the use of the information contained in this announcement.

This announcement may not be distributed in any jurisdiction except in accordance with the legal requirements applicable in such jurisdiction. Recipients should inform themselves of the restrictions that apply in their own jurisdiction. A failure to do so may result in a violation of securities laws in such jurisdiction.
